

FULL-TIME TRAINING IN ANAHEIM

STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

The United States Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) requires all educational institutions in the U.S. to obtain evidence of financial resources from any applicant who is not a U.S. citizen or Permanent Resident. This must be submitted before the International Students and Scholar Services can issue a Certificate of Eligibility (I-20 or IAP-66). Therefore, the Full-Time Training in Anaheim (FTTA) cannot issue an I-20 to applicants who have not submitted this confirmation form with all the appropriate required documentation.

If the applicant is a single, full-time student with no dependents, the applicant must certify that he or she is able to pay a minimum of $12,000 U.S. dollars for each year of study in the FTTA. This amount, however, does not apply to applicants who are married or have dependents. Applicants with these special circumstances should consult the FTTA about likely modifications to the minimal payment requirement. Your financial evidence should reflect adequate funds to cover the amount as indicated above.

Please complete the Statement of Financial Responsibility form as well as the appropriate Affidavit of Financial Support forms. These should be submitted together with the applicant's I-20 form, I-20 processing fee, and any other necessary documentation as specified below.

FUNDING SOURCES

Please indicate the source and amount of your financial support per year:

From self

Self-sponsorship requires evidence of financial resources for the duration of one year of study in the FTTA. You must enclose a completed Affidavit of Financial Support which includes both the Statement of the Self-Supporting Applicant and the Statement of the Bank forms. Please submit official bank statements, in your name, indicating solvency. These statements must be written in English and all amounts should be translated into U.S. dollars.

U.S. $ _____

From parents or individual sponsors

The sponsor is required to complete the Affidavit of Financial Support which includes both the Statement of the Sponsor or Parent(s) and the Statement of the Bank forms. Please submit official bank statements, in sponsor's name, indicating solvency. The statement from the sponsor should be sealed and signed by a notary public or government official. The statement needed from your bank should also be signed and sealed by a bank official. These statements must be written in English and all amounts should be translated into U.S. dollars.

U.S. $ _____

From sponsoring church

The sponsoring church is required to complete the Affidavit of Financial Support which includes both the Statement of the Sponsoring Church and the Statement of the Bank forms. Please attach an additional letter of support. The letter should be printed on the church's letterhead, signed by the elders, and if available, stamped with the seal of the church. The letter of support should clearly communicate that the applicant is a bonafide member of the church and list the number of years that the applicant has been a member. The letter should include the duration of the sponsorship, what expenses will be covered, and the total amount the applicant will be given for the year of study. The letter should make clear that the applicant has been recommended to represent the sponsoring church to attend the FTTA.
