Report and Prayer Burdens 12

January 26, 2026

EUROPE

France (Paris)

January 26

During the first Lord's Table meeting in Lille, we heard many testimonies from saints involved in shepherding and from those reached through gospel outreach and Bible distributions. The atmosphere was full of thanksgiving, joy, praise, and glory to God.

January 27

During gospel outreach, we met a man from Senegal who received a Bible, prayed to receive the Lord, and is open to joining on Saturday. We also met another man who called on the Lord with us and scheduled a follow-up appointment. At the same time, the sisters read the Bible with a new one who prayed to receive the Lord and later joined a small group meeting.

Prayer burdens:

1. For the appointments with the new gospel contacts and with the local saints.
2. For gospel outreach at Paris-Saclay University for the next two days.
3. For the harvest meeting on Saturday.
4. For the church in Lille to continue to go on in a strong and healthy way.

France (Toulouse)

January 24

We had a sweet time of fellowship with the students and young working saints in French, English, and Spanish. The Lord has been burdening us for these ones to enter and co-work with the serving ones to nourish and shepherd the new ones.

January 25

The Lord's table was full of praise, and the prophesying time was very enjoyable. Almost all the saints were able to share their portion within the available time, and the local saints were very helpful in translating for the trainees.

Prayer burdens:

1. That the Lord would gain the sons of peace at Science Po Toulouse on January 27th, and at Université Paul Sabatier on the 29th.
2. For the perfecting of the new saints to help nourish and shepherd others in the homes.

Germany (Berlin)

January 25

We were split into two districts for the Lord's Day table and prophesying meeting. In the afternoon, we met with the Farsi-speaking saints, heard their testimonies, and prayed for the Lord to have a way among the people in Iran for His testimony.

January 26

The brothers had lunch with a student from Technische Universität Berlin, and later held a Bible study with four brothers, enjoying Eph. 4:17–32 on the Christian daily walk. The sisters visited Freie Universität Berlin and fellowshiped with sisters during the campus tour. In the evening, the sisters had a dinner appointment with two students. There was sweet fellowship and the sharing of personal testimonies, and the students were very open in sharing their experiences of the Lord. We sensed that they had genuinely touched the Lord and gained a fresh vision of Him.

Prayer burdens:

1. That the saints in Berlin would be strengthened and united with the Farsi-speaking saints, and that the Lord would open the eyes and soften the hearts of the people in Iran for His testimony.
2. That the students would be available and willing to attend meetings and Bible studies, and be drawn into deeper fellowship and enjoyment of Christ.
3. That the Lord would go before us in campus outreach and air-tabling, opening doors and hearts—especially among Germans—so many would receive the gospel and attend the Jan 30, 2026, gospel meeting.

Luxembourg

January 23

After fellowship, we went to Belval city center to distribute Bibles in five languages and had many conversations with people from across Europe, some interested in Bible studies. Student O came for his first Bible-reading appointment; we read John 1, prayed, and he expressed a desire to continue studying. We also met a Chinese-speaking brother, saved in Taiwan and recovered last year, who said reading the Word with the brothers brings him life. He is seeking a job in Luxembourg so he can stay and continue meeting with the saints.

January 24

We arrived in Lille around 3 p.m. at a facility that can host over 200 saints. The mini-conference, on The Preparation of the Bride (messages 1 and 2), highlighted loving the Lord and maintaining oneness after offenses—healthy words for the local church in Lille on the 25th. A sister who recently moved to Lille and another senior sister with a long-term visa attended, both seeking the Lord's leading for the future. We also met a sister who had previously joined the Torch Relay gospel trip in Italy and returned to witness Lille's first Lord's table meeting.

January 25

After breakfast, we gathered for the first Lord's table in Lille, with about 227 saints attending in person and over 150 joining online from six countries. Saints who had labored over the years shared powerful testimonies of 20 years of prayer, the Lord's calling in 2023–2024, and the Body's response.

Prayer burdens:

1. The continual prayer for Lille to strengthen the testimony of oneness on the ground of oneness and the urgent burden that a new lampstand would be raised up in Luxembourg in 2026.
2. For the contacts from the distributions to be released for appointments.
3. That the Lord would remember our brother and lead him to a job that allows him to continue in the church life and with the Lord in Luxembourg.

NORTH AMERICA

Canada

Nanaimo, BC / Vancouver, BC / Victoria, BC

January 21

In anticipation for the upcoming FIFA World Cup, we joined the full-timers to scout high-traffic locations in downtown Vancouver for distributing Bibles. We organized three teams across three different locations throughout downtown. During this time, we distributed 41 Bibles.

January 22

We joined a Bible study at UBC (University of British Columbia) with 35 students in attendance, following that the sisters joined a girl small group fellowship that had six students and it was very encouraging as we welcomed three new ones. Later in the evening, we had dinner with our hospitality families.

January 23

We tabled for Bibles for Canada (BfC) at UBC, where we distributed 117 bibles. In the evening, we had a combined college and young people's meeting with 263 attendees, where we shared our testimonies in light of Matthew, chapters 19 and 20, emphasising that they are not too young to give their lives to the Lord and make a fresh consecration to Him.

January 24

We departed Vancouver and traveled to Nanaimo with six full-time serving ones. We spent the evening at a sister's home for dinner, singing and fellowship with 43 attending, including both saints and gospel friends. There, we shared personal testimonies about how the Lord drew each of us to the training. The Lord was able to use this time to infuse faith to the dear students there.

January 25

Though not yet a lampstand, this morning we were refreshed and supplied by one another's portion of Christ at the Lord's day meeting with 44 in attendance. Afterward, we headed to downtown Nanaimo to distribute gospel tracts, then spent the evening having dinner and further fellowship with the local saints.

January 26

We tabled at Vancouver Island University (VIU) with local saints and students. We distributed 57 Bibles with many international students from Ghana, India, Nigeria, and other nations showing openness to hear the gospel. The atmosphere was prayerful and full of faith as the team worked together, with many students taking Bibles, some sharing the table's location with their friends, and the Lord sovereignly bringing people who were genuinely seeking.

Prayer burdens:

1. For the Lord to bring many seeking ones to the Bible distribution at Vancouver Island University and to release the follow up and shepherding.
2. For the health of all the saints, that the enemy will continue to be bound and put to shame throughout the whole trip.
3. For the continued blending and building up of the trainees with the local saints.
4. That the Lord would gain a fresh consecration from the college students and young people in the Greater Vancouver Area and Vancouver Island.

Mid-Atlantic

Pittsburgh, PA / Philadelphia, PA

January 23

We had coordination and prayer for the evening college meeting. That evening, 52 attended, including 30 students—some for the first time. Our topic was “The Revelation of Jesus Christ and Loving Him with Our First Love,” and the students responded very positively during the breakout groups.

January 24

In the morning we left to begin our trip towards Philadelphia. We traveled part way with the saints from Pittsburgh and met the saints from Philadelphia at State College. We arrived in the evening and met with two families.

January 25

The Lord’s Day prophesying time was held on Zoom. We were at different homes and enjoyed the time.

Prayer burdens:

1. That the weather would be under His sovereign control, despite forecasts in the 20°s with wind chill.
2. That the Lord’s perfect will would be carried out this week in our gospel trip events, and that students would be willing to stop and talk during tabling.
3. That we would travel safely and blend well with the saints, especially in the evenings.

Midwest

Madison, Wisconsin / Minneapolis, Minnesota

January 23

During the last few days of the trip, the extremely cold weather limited outward gospel outreach. Nevertheless, the Lord arranged sweet times of coordination and prayer, meaningful appointments with students, and warm visitations with the saints. Much of the day was spent in the saints’ homes over meals and fellowship. The team also greatly enjoyed joining the precious saints for the home meetings on Friday night.

January 24

We began our final day in Madison, Wisconsin with coordination and prayer for the church and for those the Lord had placed on our hearts. We then had our last time tabling on campus and shared lunch with the students. It was bittersweet to say goodbye to both the students and the saints. In the afternoon, we traveled to Minneapolis, Minnesota, and had fellowship with the full-timers over dinner.

Second appointment: 3

Prayer burdens:

1. That the enemy would be bound, the campus would be peaceful, and many people would be open to hear and receive the good news.
2. For the Bible studies starting this week and the ministry meeting on Wednesday - that both returning and new students would come open and hungry.
3. For the safety of the saints, given the current situation in Minneapolis.

Northwest

Cheney, WA / Missoula, MT / Pullman, WA / Spokane, WA

January 23-25

On Thursday morning, we traveled from Cheney, Washington, to Missoula, Montana. During the short road trip, we enjoyed wonderful fellowship with the saints and were warmly welcomed by the saints in Missoula that afternoon.

On Friday morning, we had a time of coordination and prayer with the team and then headed to the University of Montana, where we split into groups of two or three to preach the gospel. One young brother, a freshman at the university, spent an hour with us in the library enjoying footnotes that touched on God's eternal purpose.

On Friday evening, our team, along with local saints and other seeking young people, gathered at a home for dinner and fellowship. Many of the young people were encouraged, and one young sister expressed a desire to attend the training in the future.

Prayer burdens:

1. That students at the University of Montana would be stirred up to have a hunger for the word and the ministry of the word.
2. That some core students would be gained at the University of Montana, so that the saints can maintain their presence as a club on the campus and can continue to nourish the students with the precious truths of the Bible.

Southeast

Fort Myers, FL / Gainesville, FL / Orlando, FL / Tampa, FL

January 23

We tabled at the University of Florida (UF). The Lord prepared the sons of peace, and we distributed all the Bibles we had. One student received a Bible, prayed to receive the Lord, and is looking forward to attending the Bible study. Afterwards, we went to the home meetings in pairs. It was very sweet to blend with the saints.

January 24-25

We traveled to Tampa in the morning to blend with students from Orlando, Gainesville, and Tampa. After lunch, we had many organic opportunities to share Christ. In the evening, we traveled to Fort Myers and were welcomed into a saint's home for dinner and fellowship with families and children. A brother shared about the college campus labor there, where the saints are faithfully serving despite no full-time team.

We met at a rented facility for the Lord's table and prophesying meeting, which was wonderful. Afterwards, we had a love feast and blended with many saints. We also spent time with families and young people and shared dinner with the saints.

Prayer burdens:

1. That there would be the raising up of full-time serving ones or a campus team on the campus at Fort Myers.
2. That many at the University of Florida would be open to receive the gospel and that the Word would be opened to them in a fresh and living way.
